Subject: Complaint against Dr A K Kaushik as alleged by Mr Rakesh Kapoor forwarded by Medical Council of India

Kindly refer to your letter No MCI-211(2)(195)2002-Regn /4680 dated 8th May 2003 on the subject noted above, I am to state that as per the clause 1.4.2 of the Indian Medical Council (Professional Conduct, Etiquette & Ethics) Regulations 2002, the contents of which are reproduced below for ready reference, a Physician can display certificates/diplomas and memberships/honours which confer professional knowledge or recognizes any exemplary qualification/achievements.

1.4.2— "Physicians shall display as suffix to their names only recognized medical degrees or such certificates/diplomas and memberships /honours which confer professional knowledge or recognizes any exemplary qualification/achievements."

In view of the above and based on the documents sent by Medical Council of India, this Council is of the opinion that Dr A K Kaushik being a member of Royal College of Physicians of Dublin which connotes obtaining professional knowledge, albeit is not a recognized qualification as per schedule to IMC Act, has not committed any act which constitute professional misconduct to warrant a disciplinary action.
